

MID-COAST TROLLEY

MID-COAST TROLLEY CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

SUMMER 2019

IMPACTS TO NOELL STREET, PALM STREET, WASHINGTON STREET, AND SASSAFRAS STREET

Beginning Friday, August 2, and continuing through Monday, August 5, street closures and lane reductions will be in place on Noell Street, Palm Street, Washington Street, and Sassafras Street as crews upgrade the train control system from the Santa Fe Depot to the Old Town Transit Center Station.

What to Expect

Noell Street and Palm Street

- Overnight full closures across the railway tracks at Noell Street and Palm Street are scheduled from Friday, August 2, through Sunday, August 4. Work hours will be 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. each night. Traffic controls will be in place and flaggers will be present.

Washington Street and Sassafras Street

- Full weekend lane reductions across the railway tracks at Washington Street and Sassafras Street are scheduled from Friday, August 2, at 9 p.m. through Monday, August 5, at 5 a.m. Traffic controls will be in place and flaggers will be present.

Through late 2020, Mid-Coast Trolley crews will continue intermittent nighttime work on underground communication and electrical systems within the railroad right-of-way at Noell Street, Washington Street, Sassafras Street, and Palm Street. General work hours are Sundays through Thursdays, from 9 p.m. to 5 a.m.

Construction schedules may change with very little notice.

About the Project

The Mid-Coast Trolley project will extend Trolley service from Old Town Transit Center to the University community, serving major activity centers such as Mission Bay, the VA Medical Center, UC San Diego, and University Towne Centre. Nine new stations will be constructed. Major construction work began in 2016, with service anticipated to begin in late 2021.
