

San Elijo Lagoon Restoration

Caltrans and SANDAG Build NCC environmental improvements include the SANDAG TransNet Environmental Mitigation Program and the $124 million restoration of 155 acres of the San Elijo Lagoon Ecological Reserve. In coordination with Nature Collective, the coastal commission, and other local resource agencies, the restoration enhances wetland areas, improves tidal flushing, shapes new flora and fauna habitats, and provides beach-quality sand to nourish and enhance the coastline.

2016

2021

